

E. Other current initiatives

- LCI-USA has agreed to post requests from academics for help from practitioners to test hypotheses.
- The Lean Construction Journal is preparing to identify academic papers with immediate relevance for practitioners and make those available in plain language.
- A meeting was held to discuss Lean transformation of the global construction industry at the July 2024 conference of the International Group for Lean Construction. An update was provided, many volunteered to be coaches of students without knowledgeable advisors, and it was agreed to include this meeting in future IGLC conferences.
